

Procedure

Recognition of prior service - teachers

Version effective: 13/06/2018
Version: 4.0

Audience

This procedure applies to all state school teachers engaged under the Teaching in State Education Award - State 2016.

Purpose

This procedure details how a teacher can apply for recognition of prior service and how their application will be assessed for the purpose of allocating remuneration levels.

Overview

A teacher may seek recognition for their prior employment experience if it relates directly to their role as a teacher. This may include recognition for previous teaching experience (including kindergarten teaching), private enterprise experience and/or self-employment experience. This will not include prior service for tutoring and life education. The recognition of prior service – teachers factsheet provides further information about what is recognised as prior service.

Prior service applications can be recognised as one of three (3) categories of recognition for which the following rates of recognition apply to the initial appointment:

- Category 1: full recognition - 100%
- Category 2: partial recognition - 50%
- Category 3: partial recognition - 33%.

Responsibilities

Teachers

- Follow the designated process for preparing and requesting recognition of prior service.
- Submit all requests for the recognition of prior service including statement of service/s, to the teacher classifications team (Payroll Services) within one (1) month of the date of commencement of employment with the department and provide further documentary evidence, if requested, within the required three (3) month period.

Teacher classification team (Payroll Services)

- Assess each application, confirming the appropriate category of recognition and considering the merit of each application.

Principals / head of departments

- Upon request, provide advice to the teacher classification team in regard to the relevance of prior experience to the teacher's teaching role at the time of their initial appointment as a teacher in their specialised field of experience (this relates to industry experience not teaching experience).

Teacher applicant centre

- Ensure prior service information is entered into the department's relevant human resources database for new applicants.

Process

1. Request for recognition of prior service

Identification of eligibility

Identification of possible eligibility for recognition of prior service can occur in two ways:

1. Identification by the teacher classification team. When an individual applies to register as a teacher, they provide details of their prior service on the Application for permission to teach. When the teacher is engaged by the department, the application for permission to teach form is provided to the department. The Teacher Applicant Centre ensures prior service information is entered into the department's relevant human resource database/s. The teacher classification team identifies new starters with potential prior service based on their employment history and requests information from the new teacher, if it is not already on the file.

OR

2. Teacher initiated. The teacher emails the teacher classification team at teacherclassificationteam.humanres@ged.qld.gov.au and requests recognition of prior service, attaching the required supporting documents (see below).

Teaching experience whilst on special leave from the department (see definitions) may be considered previous service.

Supporting documentation required

All requests for recognition of prior service require supporting documentation in the form of a Statement of service. Statements of service which do not meet the required criteria (as detailed in the definitions) cannot be assessed and a request for additional information will be made to the employee.

Timing of request for recognition of prior service

All applications must be submitted within one month:

- the date of employment, or
- return from leave, or
- re-engagement with the department.

Any application for assessment received in excess of one month from the initial appointment / engagement date will be reclassified from the date of receipt only.

The teacher classification team can request additional information if required from the teacher or principal / head of department to complete their assessment. When requested, the teacher must provide further documentary evidence, within a three month period.

Failure to meet the above outlined timeframes will result in no retrospective entitlement for salary purposes.

Salary classifications will only be adjusted from the date the full and correct finalised documentation is received by the teacher classification team.

2. Assess request for recognition of prior service and determine category and calculate classification level

Assessing the application

On receipt of the application, the teacher classification team:

- ensures the application is measured against the benchmark tasks in which all applications for full recognition of meritorious teaching service are measured.
- must be satisfied that the teacher's previous employment involved participation in at least a majority of the benchmark tasks.
- when assessing recognition of prior industry experience, must ensure recognition is only given to employment that ceased in the five year period to the date of initial appointment as a teacher in their initial specialised teaching role. Employment that ceased outside this time period is not recognised as service for salary classification purposes.
- must ensure recognition is not given to employment on a casual day-to-day service on an irregular basis. For the recognition of casual service, five or more consecutive in one location is required, or alternately a pattern of working consecutive weeks on the same days at the one location needs to be established.
- determines and calculates the classification level for recognition of prior service based on the categories of recognition (see definitions).

Notification and implementation of outcome

On recognition of prior service, the teacher's pay will be adjusted and this will be reflected on their next payslip. Should a request for recognition of prior service be unsuccessful, the teacher classification team will email the teacher to advise the outcome.

Definitions

Benchmark tasks	The Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (Qld) defines a "teacher" as a member of a State educational institution. The Education Queensland position description further defines a teacher's role as including the following tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • planning, preparation and delivery of effective learning and teaching programs for every student in allocated classes and/or groups • contributing to the development and implementation of the school objectives and school planning • contributing to the establishment and maintenance of a supportive school environment • contributing to and assisting with the management and further development of personnel, financial, information and technology, assets and facilities resources of the school to ensure their optimum use in meeting educational and departmental objectives. These tasks form the benchmark against which applications for full recognition of previous meritorious teaching service should be measured. The teacher classification
